Many Officers of New Mexico Guard
Would Attend Maneuvers at San Antonio.

Santa Fe, N. M., March 14.—Gov. Mills has appointed the following notaries public: William C. Hoffman, Clovis; Coffey county; Jose A. Torres, Socorro, Socorro county.

Adj. Gen. A. S. Brooks has sent to the war department the names of those officers of the National guard he thinks should attend the maneuvers of the United States army at San Antonio, Texas. This was in compliance with the order sent from the war department. Mr. Brooks has recommended the following: Col. E. C. Abbott and Capt. Norman L. King of Santa Fe; First Lieut. Albert Haysard, Las Vegas; Major S. P. Boggs, City; Capt. P. E. Dugger, Las Vegas; Capt. C. H. Nichols, Artesia; and Lieut. J. J. McMillan, Silver City.

It is not certain, however, that all of these will go, as the quota for New Mexico is not known. Only 100 officers of the National guard of the state and will be allowed to go to San Antonio at government expense.

Insurance Commissioner Jacob Chaves has received word from the State Life Insurance company of Indianapolis and of the Southland Life Insurance company of Dallas, Texas, stating they have retired from New Mexico.

Superintendent of Public Instruction J. E. Clark is receiving stacks of letters from teachers all over the country asking him to get them temporary positions so that they may take advantage of the new conditions that confront New Mexico. Most of the letters begin by complimenting New Mexico on having obtained statehood and expressing the wish that the department of education may increase its efficiency, etc., etc.

The Fidelity Deposit company of Baltimore, Md., has wired a $10,000 bond with the territorial treasurer to entitle it to write liberty bonds in New Mexico.

The bank at Roy, Mora County, which has been in charge of Traveler's Aid Chapter V, Safford since last week, has reopened its doors.

There are now 200 prisoners in the penitentiary, on Friday, and Saturday the following new prisoners were entered: General Hovey, one year to 15 months; grand larceny; Celestino Alacid, three years to 27 months; burglary; Marcial Quintana, cipriano Quintana and Anton Trujillo, six to nine months each for burglary. The latter four are the Indians convicted of stealing turquoise from the Tiffany mines. Daniel Archuleta of Socorro also arrived at the pen to serve a sentence of 15 to 20 years for murder.

Atenacio Macias of Mountainair and Domingo Jose Asendo of Lucero made land entries Saturday at the local land office.

Tucumcari Banker Scores Control of Bank Which Was Closed
Last Week.

Special to Evening Herald.

Tucumcari, N. M., March 14.—H. G. Jones, president of the First National bank of this city, with C. V. Stafford, territorial bank examiner, investigated the books of the Roy, N. M., bank, which closed the 5d of this month, and the bank has been reopened and will become one of the strongest banks managed by the examiners of which Mr. Jones of this city and W. H. Quinn of Amarillo are members. This string includes banks in Tucumcari, Wilcox, Vaughn and Santa Rosa.

The contract for the new Elks home has been awarded to Horne brothers, the contractors who are building the Victoria hotel. The bid, exclusive of the plumbing, was $15,000. The complete cost of the building will approximate $15,000. The committee has not yet decided upon the location for the building.

The roof is almost completed on the Vesperine hotel and the glass has been put in the windows of the second floor.

The southern part of Quay county reports excellent prospects for a wheat crop this year even if no more rain falls. The wheat had a good start prior to the recent snows, which added sufficient moisture to the ground to finish the crop according to farmers in the vicinity.

It is reported that Tucumcari will have an ice cream manufactory this summer. S. V. Cleas, who was with the local ice company last year, being in charge.

Ward & White have opened a new meat market on East Main street. R. A. Wingfield of Ottawa, Kan., will be in charge.

Word from the northern portion of the county indicates that satisfactory progress is being made on the Logan and Ute creek dam project. The farmers in the neighborhood are pleased with the scheme as it will mean the reclamation of several thousand acres of land.

Jack Stewart, son of Donald Stewart, manager of the Gross-Kelly fleet in this city, has purchased lots on South Third street and will build a fine home thereon.

A new departure for the high school of this city was the musical entertainment given at the high school auditorium by the pupils of the piano department under the supervision of Miss McKenzie, the high school orchestra assisting. The entertainment was free to the public and was for the purpose of increasing interest in this department.

S. D. Jones, J. D. Suter and C. M. Suter, patients who were injured in the recent wreck on the El Paso & Southwestern at Pastura, and who have been in Tucumcari for treatment, have returned to their homes fully recovered.

The annual banquet which was postponed from last month until the 19th of this month has been again postponed indefinitely. The banquet was to have been given to the Tucumcari ministers and their wives.

MAGDALENA NEWS

Special to Evening Herald.

Magdalena, N. M., March 14.—Hugh Williams, grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, domain of New Mexico, visited the local lodge of this popular order, the past week. Mr. Williams, although a passenger conductor on the Santa Fe between Albuquerque and El Paso, finds time for fraternal work and for promoting the interests of the order in the field over which he presides. He gives freely of his money and spends liberally of the time at his command in visiting the lodges within his field. The growth and prosperity of the order throughout the territory attest the efficiency of his work and the vitality of his presence.

A number of new members, 14 in all, have been initiated into the mysteries of the rank of poker several advanced to the rank of squire and the rank of knight, at the recent meeting. The following visiting members were present from Socorro and San Marcial: Z. F. Johnson, James Cameron, J. A. Stanley, S. C. Monk, H. W. Bentville, Joe G. Gandy, Dr. Clark, Mrs. Gibbons, J. B. Poole, J. Parsons, H. Bentville, F. Wilson.
